GETTING HERE

Flights
Cam Ranh International Airport (Nha Trang) receives flights from a host of domestic and international destinations. With daily flights from Saigon, Hanoi and Danang plus other domestic routes including Haiphong and Vinh, Nha Trang is easily accessible and great to add on to your Vietnam itinerary. The international routes are constantly growing; at present there are direct flights from Korea, China, Japan and Russia (chartered) and scheduled flights from Seoul, Guangzhou and Hong Kong meaning this amazing beach destination is easily accessible with just a short flight.

Bus
Nha Trang is easily accessible by road; Dalat is just a 3-hour drive, Mui Ne 5 hours, Ho Chi Minh City 11 hours, and Danang 12 hours.

Train
Nha Trang is on the north-south train route so most trains will stop here. The train is a great way to see the Vietnamese countryside and enjoy a unique experience. Popular routes include Danang–Nha Trang and Ho Chi Minh City–Nha Trang.

GETTING AROUND

Nha Trang is a great city to explore. The centre is quite compact and easily navigated on foot. If the walking gets too much for you or you want to head slightly out of the tourist area then there are plenty of options; taxis, buses and peddle-powered cyclos are all great ways to explore the city.

MONEY

The local currency is Vietnam Dong (VND). Major credit cards are accepted in bigger businesses and hotels, but cash is the preferred method of payment in most places. There are numerous banks and ATMs across the city.

TIME

Nha Trang is GMT+7

BUSINESS HOURS

Government offices and banks are open between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm but are usually closed for 90 minutes over lunch. Shops are generally open from 8:00 am – 9:00 pm. Bars open late into the night, restaurants tend to close earlier, around 9:00 pm, although if you want late night food you will find plenty of options around.

HEALTH

There are 3 large hospitals within Nha Trang, the newest being Vinmec International Hospital. Many pharmacies selling a variety of medicines are seen throughout the city. Medical insurance is recommended.

BEACH SAFETY

There are lifeguards along most of the main beach, swim close to the towers and keep out of the water if the swell is large (Nov-Mar only)

PERSONAL SAFETY

Nha Trang is a safe city to visit but it is recommended that you always take care of bags, phones and cameras. Leave your passport at the hotel and don’t carry excess cash.

WEATHER

Nha Trang has one of the best climates in Vietnam for visitors. It boasts the shortest rainy season across all the beach destinations in Vietnam. There are over 300 days of sunshine per annum with temperatures ranging from 21º–35º Celsius.

TIPPING

Tipping is appreciated but not expected, a good rule of thumb is to tip what you feel is appropriate at the time.
Three Days in Nha Trang

DAY ONE

Nha Trang has some amazing cultural sites that represent the various historical and religious influences throughout the ages! Start off at Nui Catholic Cathedral, built around 1933 on a hill overlooking the city. It has amazing views and great architecture (built in French Gothic style). After visiting the cathedral, jump in a taxi for the very short trip to Long Son Pagoda. Founded in the late 19th Century, this Buddhist temple is famous for its 27 meter high shimmering white statue of Buddha that can be seen from all over the city. You can get great views and photographs of Nha Trang city and the countryside that sprawls beyond—it certainly makes the climb worth it!

One place which should definitely be on your list is Po Nagar Temple, built by the Cham people in the 8th Century. Structured in 3 levels, high steps lead up to two rows of towers, the highest of which is 25 meters tall. Here you can see the monks at prayer and view traditional dances performed by the remaining indigenous Cham people. It is particularly beautiful either at sunrise or sunset due to the warm, golden colors reflected from the temple bricks.

In the afternoon head to the mud baths. There are three natural mud baths and mineral springs in the city; I-Resort, 100 Egg Mudbaths and Thap Ba. Spend a few hours to immerse yourself in the natural clay mud that is rich in minerals and wash off in balmy water of the hot springs. It will leave your skin and body feeling completely rejuvenated!

There is such a vast array of restaurants in Nha Trang that it can be difficult to choose! If you’re craving good quality Vietnamese food, then Lanterns is a great choice, or for international food try Lunar Rooftop Bar and Grill. After, take a trip to LIVINcollective where you can pick up some high-quality Vietnamese souvenirs and locally produced handicrafts that you won’t find in the tourist markets.

As night falls, the city livens up, and this is the time to visit Sailing Club, the most popular beach club in town.

DAY TWO

After seeing so many sites on your first day, the second day is all about relaxation!

There are plenty of great spas in Nha Trang that are very reasonably priced. Pure Vietnam Beauty and Spa has an exceptional service, and a number of packages available. A 60-minute massage starts at around US$14, so it’s fantastic value for money.

With around 21 islands just off the coast, hiring a private boat for the afternoon and exploring the incredible seaside scenery of Nha Trang is highly recommended. See the islands and islets in style, and charter your own private yacht for half-day trip (13.30-16.30) from Sailing Center Vietnam.

Seafood in Nha Trang is not to be missed; most hotels do excellent seafood buffets or if you want to sample more local style head north of the river and choose a busy restaurant—the best way to guarantee freshness!

DAY THREE

There are so many great activities in Nha Trang—on your last day you should choose between the sea and the land. Either spend the day diving or snorkeling, golfing or just having fun at the theme park.

With over 15 years of experience, Sailing Club Divers offer PADI accredited diving courses, Fun Dives and snorkeling trips at the protected marine reserve, Hon Mun Island. It’s a great way to see the beauty of the underwater world with impressive corals on display and many species of marine life unique to the region.

On Vinpearl Island, just across the bay, there is both a theme park and waterworld along with a world-class golf course (Vinpearl Golf Nha Trang), a great way to end your holiday!
Planning a holiday with a family can be daunting—you want to find a place that suits everyone, that is safe but fun and interesting enough for all to enjoy.

Vietnam is the perfect family holiday destination, Vietnamese people love children and offer nothing but warmth to family travellers in Vietnam. Nha Trang is the best family destination within Vietnam, offering shallow calm seas and enough entertainment to keep the whole family occupied whether for just a short break or for two weeks!

STAY
A lot of hotels in Nha Trang have kid's clubs on offer, with great activities and babysitting services. Take a look at InterContinental Nha Trang, Sheraton Nha Trang Hotel and Spa, Novotel Nha Trang, Mia Resort Nha Trang, and Six Senses Ninh Van Bay—all offer unique experiences for the family. It’s also worth looking out for interconnecting rooms or 2-bedroom villas, all the above hotels offer family friendly room types.

PLAY
If you want to take advantage of the beautiful sea location of Nha Trang then there’s no better way than snorkelling or diving. As long as the child can swim (even if only with a life jacket) then they can snorkel and see the marine that Nha Trang has on offer. At Sailing Club Divers, children under 5 can snorkel for free (or accompany parents on the boat), ages 5-12 are half price (they need to be accompanied by a parent). They also have a great ‘Bubble Maker’ programme aimed at 8-10 year olds. Children aged from 10 years old can enroll in the standard Discover Scuba Diving program. All instructors are highly qualified and experienced ensuring children are safe at all times.

If you want to escape the heat then Nha Trang Center has great entertainment options—a cinema (which shows children’s movies in both English and Vietnamese), a bowling alley, a games center and a newly refurbished children’s play area!!

At Lantern’s restaurant they have cooking classes and street food tours which are great for kids that want to explore and learn more about the local cuisine. They also offer a ‘Ninh Hoa Discovery Tour’ which takes you into the countryside to discover the ‘real Vietnam’.

For any golfers; Vinpearl Golf Nha Trang is a World-class golf course which offers children under 15 a 50% discount on green fees! They have children’s clubs available too. Vinpearl Land is also a must visit for kids—a theme park and waterpark which offers a fun day for all!

SEE
Exploring the cultural sites and beaches will definitely keep children entertained. A trip to the Oceanographic Museum and seeing all the different marine life is great with children.

EAT
Finding good restaurants with children can be difficult if you have fussy eaters—most of the hotels do excellent buffets with great choices, and good dessert sections! They are usually half price for kids under a certain age, and free for little ones so great value too. Sheraton also have a play area available to use when you dine in their restaurants. Sailing Club offers a great children’s menu and high chairs for little ones. For the more adventurous eaters there are so many choices of restaurants in Nha Trang—even the fussiest of eaters are bound to find food that they love here!

RELAX
Okay, so ‘relax’ and ‘holiday with children’ don’t normally get mentioned together but take advantage of the excellent kid’s clubs and spend a relaxing few hours in a spa—you deserve it after all the exploring!

Nha Trang is a unique beach destination in Vietnam. It is small enough to easily navigate, yet large enough to provide plenty of things to see and do. Take some time to look at the travel guides, both online (www.visitnhatrang.org) and in this brochure, for information about the many unique landmarks and activities to enjoy in Nha Trang.
Dam Market

Located near the centre of the city, Dam Market starts to come alive from 4 AM with the arrival of fresh meats, fish, fruit and vegetables. It is a true Vietnamese market and visitors can get an idea of how many Vietnamese families shop for fresh produce everyday. You can find everything from clothes and food to gifts and much more in between!

Islands Around Nha Trang

Nha Trang is ideally situated between the ocean and the mountains. Directly off the coast are five main islands, the largest being Hon Tre, providing protection from storms and giving Nha Trang the best beach climate in Vietnam. These islands also make Nha Trang a great place to explore by boat.

Below are the five main islands, all easily accessible by boat:

- Hon Yen, also known as Salangane Island, is the source of Vietnam’s finest salangane nests.
- Hon Mieu, known as an ‘outdoor aquarium’, has a fish breeding farm supporting over 40 species of fish.
- Hon Mun is known as the snorkelling and diving island, with great visibility during the dive season from March to September.
- Hon Mot is a popular snorkelling stop.
- Hon Tre is the big island seen from Nha Trang and known by many as Vinpearl Island.

Long Son Pagoda

Built in the late 19th Century, this pagoda is one of the more impressive pagodas to view in Vietnam. Behind the pagoda is a huge white Buddha (the Gautama Buddha) and the 152-step walk up to the Buddha is rewarded by breath taking views of Nha Trang and the surrounding countryside.

Phat Hoc, Phuong Son Ward, Nha Trang
Nui Church

The official name of this Church is King Cathedral, although most people know it as Nui (Mountain) Church. This impressive, gothic-style church sits on a hill in the heart of the city, and is a perfect example of French architecture within the Nha Trang region dating from the late 19th Century. The centre of Catholicism in the region, the church still holds sermons in the morning and afternoon and is open for visitors to explore.

Other Beaches Outside of Nha Trang

Nha Trang has a stunning 6 km beach in the heart of the city but if you’re wanting to head to quieter, less developed beaches then you’ll be spoilt for choice. Two worth mentioning are Doc Let (50 km north, with powdery white sand and turquoise waters) and Bai Dai (20 km south, and relatively quiet). There are also plenty of smaller beaches that are worth discovering for yourself!

Bai Dai Beach

Thap Ba Ponagar Tower

Also known as the Po Nagar Cham Towers, these beautiful and elegant towers were built between the 7th and 12th centuries. They are still actively used by Cham, ethnic Chinese and Vietnamese Buddhists for worship today. The towers were built on a granite knoll facing east, offering excellent views across Nha Trang Bay.

#HashtagLunchbag

During Christmas 2012, in Los Angeles, #HashtagLunchbag started with a group of friends who were having trouble finding a fun and meaningful way to give back. After a few failed attempts they decided to take it upon themselves to create their own experience.

#HashtagLunchbag is a humanity service movement dedicated to empowering and inspiring humanity to reap the benefits of giving through the use of social media. People create and use bagged lunches, complete with love messages, as a vessel to spread this love and share their experiences to inspire others.

This movement has since spread across the world with events in Indonesia, the Philippines, and Vietnam (thanks to Skylight and Visit Nha Trang)!

#HashtagLunchbag first came to Nha Trang in August 2015. It has since grown in numbers with many local businesses supporting the event. Volunteers come together on the last Sunday of every month to assemble and distribute lunches to the less fortunate.

#HashtagLunchbag will be starting in Ho Chi Minh City soon with hopefully more coming countrywide in the near future.

Get involved!! #HashtagLunchbag meet at BBQ Un In (206 Xom Con Street) on the last Sunday of every month at 9:00 am to assemble and distribute the lunches, or support by buying a wristband (each wristband can provide one lunch for the less fortunate). Check out our website at www.visitnhatrang.org/community or visit our facebook page for more information.
Environmental Events

Nha Trang is extremely lucky to have the natural landscape that it does. Visit Nha Trang genuinely cares about the environment and hosts many activities to raise awareness and get the community involved.

The beach and ocean are Vietnam’s most valuable resources and the people of Nha Trang feel passionate about maintaining its beauty. Every three months a beach clean-up is held where hotels, locals, tourists and expats all come together to clean an area of the beach or city.

This helps build awareness and momentum to continue to keep Nha Trang Bay staying as one of the most beautiful bays in the world.

If you would like to get involved in the next Beach Clean Up Day, please visit our website at www.visitnhatrang.org to find up-to-date information.

Blood Drive

Giving blood helps to save lives—you never know when you might be the one in need. Visit Nha Trang, in association with the Red Cross, has been organising a blood drive every four months for the last two years.

In the last blood drive, 12 organisations came together with a total of 265 attendees to donate 44,000 ml of blood. That’s 60 lives saved!

Check out our community page to found out how you can become a hero! www.visitnhatrang.org/community
Wristbands

Nha Trang has a very proactive community who wish to help support the local area. Many businesses in Nha Trang are offering customers 10% discount on Food, Beverages and Spa services* when they purchase a wristband. All you need to do is buy a wristband and present it whenever you visit one of the venues below.

By purchasing a wristband for just 50.000VND you will be helping to feed the less fortunate, keep the oceans and beaches clean, help educate the underprivileged and possibly even save a life—buy a wristband today and give back to the local community!

Take a look at our website (www.visitnhatrang.org) for up-to-date information on participating venues.
